01 PROFESSIONAL PROFILE

Musicologist, professional musician, sound engineer, music producer and music educator with extensive hands-on experience across music performance, audio production, music education, MAO, artistic coordination and cultural projects. My professional background combines practical musicianship, music theory, critical listening, sound engineering, music production, pedagogy and curriculum development, with experience across performance, teaching, audio production and creative project coordination. I am currently extending this multidisciplinary experience toward AI audio evaluation, music data annotation and human-in-the-loop digital workflows, where musical knowledge, listening accuracy and structured analysis can contribute to data quality and model evaluation.
